‘face’, the public self-image that every member wants to claim for himself, consisting in two related aspect:

(a) negative face: the basic claim to territories, personal preserves, rights to non-distraction – i.e. to freedom from imposition.

(b) positive face: the positive consistent self-image or ‘personality’ (crucially including the desire that this self-image be appreciated and approved of) claimed by interactants.